"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Barre are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back has had no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the old Quaker remedy. Here is an example worth reading:—

Alvin F. Smith, 19 West street, Barre, Vt., says: "I have never relapsed into the serious condition in which I was before taking Doan's Kidney Pills in 1897. For some time I had terrible pains across my back and it was almost impossible for me to stoop. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at E. A. Brown's drug store and found prompt relief from their use. During the past several years, I have had slight attacks of the trouble, but at such times I have always taken Doan's Kidney Pills and have found prompt relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

The pastoral comedy drama, "The Power of Truth," was presented at the opera house Saturday evening by the Marshfield dramatic club, under the direction of Harrison J. Russell. Esmeralda Rogers, the heroine of the story, was well played by Lillian June Russell. Special mention should be made of the creditable manner in which Charles Darling played the part of Elbert Rogers, "the old man"; also of the interpretation of the part of Mrs. Rogers, played by Mrs. Genevieve Hollister. The part of Miss May Darling, as Nora Desmond, was much enjoyed. This is the third successful play that Mr. Russell has presented in this and the surrounding towns during the past two months.

Plainfield has had a very unique entertainment this winter. Andrew J. Lawrence, for thirty years or more a weigher in the U. S. mint at Philadelphia, a veteran of the civil war and a veteran player of the violin, has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Amanda Batchelder, who is unable to leave her house by reason of infirmities. Wishing to have others enjoy her musical treats, she kindly opened her ample rooms to any and all who were musically inclined on Tuesday evening of each alternate week, and, from four to five, they have come in till there were forty-seven to enjoy the last concert. Mr. Lawrence and his fine violin got acquainted over fifty years ago, and the acquaintance, as the story-writers have it, "has ripened into a oneness of spirit" which makes them inseparable, till one wonders which is making the music in which the other so perfectly joins. Mrs. Kellogg has accompanied on the piano chiefly, but several others have taken her place upon occasion. In order to add variety to the program, it was arranged that recitations, readings, songs and piano solos should be interspersed. The following persons have therefore taken part once or more, viz.: Mrs. Whipple, Mrs. Gertrude Martin, Prin. Cowles and Mrs. Cowles, Mrs. Worthen, Mrs. H. F. Bartlett, a trio of the Hudson family, Miss Vena Townsend, Miss Bruffee and the Revs. Hewitt and Fisk. An admission fee has been paid. No doubt, no for a concert no better, certainly, and sometimes not so good as these informal ones. The extempore toasts and replies of the last evening, together with the cheers of the whole company, kept things jolly till a later hour than usual, and testified to the thankful satisfaction of all.
